Announcements

Welcome to our speaker today...
He attended Avondale College in Australia; Andrews University Theological Seminary in Berrien Springs Michigan; and Fuller Theological Seminary in Pasadena, California.
Bill's commitment to the priesthood of all believers and the Biblical blueprint for church growth remains undiminished. As President of Creative Growth Ministries, Pastor Liversidge is dedicated to equipping believers with the biblical principles that will enable them to develop their spiritual gifts and move into effective ministry, so that they reveal Christ and His character through His living Body - the Church. All members are thereby lifted up to their maximum God-intended potential within the whole Body.

Elders Meeting:
The monthly Elders meeting will be on Monday night at 7.00pm at the church.

Working Bee - Sunday 8th September. There are a number of well overdue things that need to be done. If you can't make it for that date but would like to still be involved, contact David Johnson (contact details on the back of the bulletin). Lots to be done for anyone willing to help. I will be at the Church from sunrise for any very early starters.
Any men interested in starting a Men's Shed Ministry around the Nambour area could you also turn up as well and we will form a group...7.30am
