Announcements

Congratulations to Josh Dobson and Tim Gill for the acknowledgement they received at the Nambour Christian College Speech night on Thursday night. Both Josh and Tim received a Leadership and Service Certificate for consistently and actively practicing their leadership skills throughout the college. In addition to this, Josh was awarded the Avondale Presidents Scholarship and Tim the National Australia Bank Leadership award. Both of these awards are significant and they are to be congratulated. There are 111 students in their class this year and we wish them both well in their future endeavours. CONGRATULATIONS!

Healthy Living

The next meeting of our Nambour Healthy Lifestyle Club will be on Thursday, November 7, as usual in the Church Hall, commencing at 6:45pm. Jean Ward will be demonstrating several new spreads for bread or crackers. Cedric will highlight the main features of new books available for lending from the club library. All welcome.

Church picnic next week, at the Buderim Forest Park (bottom entrance, Harry's Lane, off Lindsay Road). Come prepared to get outdoors with your church family and enjoy a meal together.

Big Thankyou from the caterers to Esther and Brianna for their great help in the kitchen washing up after the luncheon last week!

Pathfinder Service Weekend

Last weekend, twenty-three Pathfinders contributed to their community during their Service Weekend. Sabbath afternoon was spent preparing and distributing Freddo frogs with cards of appreciation to the people who deliver a service in our community - the police, fire fighters and various health workers. The Pathfinders returned with smiles and stories of appreciation for their small gesture. On Sunday, everyone was given a choice of service activity. Four brave Pathfinders went on the ADRA Appeal and raised $363.80, while two large groups went to Geoff Bacon's and Doc & Rose's, doing a backyard blitz in both places. Three Pathfinders volunteered to make meals for the workers and made some extra items to give to people in need.

Thank you for the support from parents and Pathfinder staff, as well as the church community for making this weekend possible. We have all (adults and children alike) been blessed.

Education Offering next week

There will be two Education Offerings in November as there was none in September because of Camp. Our commitment to Noosa Christian College is $870 per month. Please continue to support this worthy facility. Remember if we each give at least $10 per month we will continue to meet our commitment.

Conference Announcements:
