

NEWS FROM NOOSA CHRISTIAN COLLEGE:

3-2-1-Go! Billy carts are set to race again

On Sunday July 19, 2015 Noosa Christian College, Cooroy will host its twelfth annual Billy Cart Grand Prix—a unique event on the Sunshine Coast.

This event is the annual fun fair for the school located in the Sunshine Coast Hinterland. There are billy cart races for Pre-Preps to Open age categories with registrations open to the community. So get a team together, build or borrow a billy cart and join in a great day of racing fun!

In addition to the billy carts there will be plenty of attractions including; amusement rides, giant garage sale, auction, market stalls, live music, a large food court, produce stalls, sideshow, muscle car display, animal petting enclosure and competitions including LEGO, cooking and art.

Garage Sale from 7:30am, Registrations for billy carts open from 8.30 am and Racing and rides from 9am. Spectators welcome with free admission, Billy cart racing $5per team member and wristbands for all-day rides $35. For more event information or to pre-purchase entry fees or wristbands visit www.noosabillycart.com

“Are you interested in Raw Vegan foods?”

If so, you're very welcome to attend the Healthy Lifestyle Club to be held at the Church this Tuesday the 7th July, starting at 6:45 pm. We have a special guest who is a qualified Vegan and Raw Chef.

Janet Clarke is very qualified and her background has been as a Health Minister and Head of the Kitchen at Living Valley Springs for a number of years. Janet has also worked in the United States as well.

Janet will be talking about the “Healthy Cell” and she will also be demonstrating Green Smoothies and how they play a big part.

We would like to see you there, bring a friend or two and taste test the results of Janet's demonstration.
