

A great opportunity for some 18+ year old young person interested in Christian Chaplaincy and Outdoor Education - The QCCC centre where Rob May works is offering internships for the following starting in 2016:

CAMPFIRE CHAPLAINS

QCCC CAMP FIRE Internship Program
Discipleship by Queensland Baptists' Camping Ministry

Call for Applicants 2016:

The Blackall Range has a place of great importance in our nation's history. It is a place of abundance and hosted the regular Bunya Festival – a corroboree where stories and skills were exchanged, conflicts resolved and stories told. Working with several prominent Aboriginal Christians the QCCC CAMP FIRE program is an attempt to resurrect the legacy of our continent's original inhabitants within the context of Outdoor Education and Recreation. The program is an inseparable combination of Aboriginal story and training in Outdoor Education and Christian Discipleship.

We hope to commence with our first intake of interns during January 2016 for a two-year journey which will lead to a deeper understanding of and walk with God and qualifications to allow fulltime work and ministry in the Outdoor Education Industry. This first intake of students will be pioneers. The training and discipleship team will be constructing the long-term future of the internship as we launch and the first students will have the opportunity to help shape and grow a program with designs to change our nation through reconciliation, hospitality and discipleship.

Attached is an application form for the first intake of students and a sheet of questions which are yet to be frequently asked, but which we expect you'd like to know. Applications close on 30th November 2015 and we also invite all applicants to attend our inaugural "Campfire Chaplains" Conference at QCCC Mapleton on the 7th and 8th December. If you have more questions about the internship program please contact Steve Turner at QCCC Mapleton – (07) 5456 3600.

Yours in Christ and Adventure
